ADOPT-A-BARN CAT APPLICATION

Feral Cat FOCUS does not believe in the relocation of feral/free-roaming cats. These cats are best left in their own environment. However, in extreme cases when cats are in imminent danger and there is absolutely no other recourse, we will place feral/free-roaming cats into a barn home. This ONLY happens at our discretion.

Cats can also be placed in warehouses, nurseries, greenhouses, horse barns and stables, garages, or a private individual that wants outside cats and is willing to take proper care of them. We are looking for cat lovers who have a barn or other secure outdoor structure and are interested in adopting cats not suitable for life inside of a house. These cats are healthy, spayed or neutered, vaccinated, and ear-tipped for identification. Their temperaments range from feral to friendly.
